

BELL DEWAR & HALL
COMPETITION GROUP
Recent matters
names withheld for client confidentiality

Names withheld for client confidentiality.

Acted in defending the first excessive pricing complaint before the Competition Tribunal. The matter has been referred to the Competition Appeal Court. It is the first excessive pricing matter to be fully litigated in South Africa. The matter has drawn significant domestic and international interest.

Acted in a significant merger approval application in the steel industry.

Acted against South African Airways in the first damages claim in the High Court of South Africa following a determination by the Competition Tribunal of anti-competitive conduct. The matter was settled during the course of trial hearing.

Acting against South African Airways in respect of ongoing abuse of dominance regarding override incentive agreements.

Acted for a leading chemicals group in respect of the South African jurisdiction in a merger.

Acted for a forestry group and others in an appeal before the Competition Appeal Court, regarding a jurisdiction dispute arising from a merger approval by the Competition Commission.

Acted in one of the largest health care pharmaceutical mergers in recent years.

Advised multinational in a corporate leniency application in respect of an international cartel.

Advised a domestic and multinational group in relation to alleged cartel activity.

Developed training courses for local branches of multinational groups.

Acting for applicant in a complaint in the airline industry regarding refusal to allow access.